Communion Call and Response

Psalm 32:1-7 Adapted from NLT. A psalm of David.

LEADER: Oh, what joy for those whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is put out of sight!

PEOPLE: Yes, what joy for those whose record the Lord has cleared of guilt, whose lives are lived in complete honesty!

LEADER: When I refused to confess my sin, my body wasted away, and I groaned all day long.

PEOPLE: Day and night your hand of discipline was heavy on me. My strength evaporated like water in the summer heat.

LEADER: Finally, I confessed all my sins to you and stopped trying to hide my guilt. I said to myself, "I will confess my rebellion to the Lord."

PEOPLE: And you forgave me! All my guilt is gone.

LEADER: Therefore, let all the godly pray to you while there is still time, that they may not drown in the floodwaters of judgment.

ALL: For you are my hiding place; you protect me from trouble. You surround me with songs of victory.

To FBC Bloomfield,

Thank you for your faithful participation in packing Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes. There were 2,280 shoeboxes collected at the Greene County drop-off this year. The 30 boxes you packed affected an estimated 300 for Jesus and His Eternal Kingdom, and that is a human average and just this year alone. To God be the glory! Thank you again for your faithful participation with the Operation Christmas Child ministry.
