2018 Apple Festival

Our noodle making machine will once again restart in October to provide Chicken and Noodle Dinners at the Apple Festival. Mark your calendars for October 4th at 6pm for our annual Noodle Making event! Sign-up sheets are circulating for donations of the food and drink items and for volunteer workers. Volunteers are needed on Friday, October 5th and Saturday October 6th to set-up and tear down the booth, work in the kitchen, work at the booth, and serve as a runner between the church and the booth. Please contact Eric or Jennifer Moody to sign up or if you have any questions.

Nursery Volunteers Needed

If you would like to volunteer in the nursery one Sunday a month, please see Sandy Clark.

Poverty Simulation Event – October 12

This free poverty simulation event will take place at the Community Events Center at the Greene County Fairgrounds. The simulation will run from 9:30-11:30, followed by lunch, and then a Bridges out of Poverty program from 12:30-2:30. The event is designed to help participants understand what it may be like to live in a typical low-income family trying to survive from month to month. You may RSVP to Portia Hockman, at 812-699-4429 or phockman@pacecaa.org or by letting Nathan know. The event is limited to the first 85 participants to register.

Care and Support Workshop

The workshop “Care and Support during Life’s Critical Moments” is being presented in Evansville on Thursday, November 8, from 10-5 ET. This workshop provides instruction on helping persons facing illness, death, and grief. We’d travel together from the church. If you are interested in attending, please let Nathan know by September 30.

Miles Pike in Concert at FBC – Sunday, October 21

Join us Sunday evening, October 21, at 6:00 for a concert unlike any other. Miles has a five octave range and sings all parts, from the lowest bass to the highest soprano notes. Come enjoy his music and be encouraged by his humorous words and heartfelt message. Refreshments will be served after the concert.
