One Great Hour of Sharing

The Wichita Community Church insert describes how they do ministry in a rural setting somewhat like FBC Bloomfield. They, too, are facing economic challenges while trying to support families in need. Locally, our food pantry ministry is serving more and larger families each week. Their children’s ministry offers community outreach such as VBS, back to school supplies, and sack lunches. Your offering to the One Great Hour of Sharing helps to assist the most vulnerable in our community.....our children. BE THE LIGHT!

MISSION STORIES

"You're here to be light, bringing out the God-colors in the world."

Matthew 5:14 (The Message)

BE THE LIGHT: IN ANADARKO, OKLAHOMA

Wichita Community Church (WCC) in Anadarko, Okla., has been a beacon of light in its community for years. Established in 1908 by the missionary Rev. George W. Hicks and his wife, it provides spiritual guidance to the community under the leadership of Pastor Damon Smith and his wife Lois, who also serve as vice-moderator and treasurer of the Oklahoma Indian Baptist Association, respectively. They are both led in their calling by our Lord Jesus Christ who said: "I must work the works of Him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." (John 9:4-5)

Like many rural towns, Anadarko faces economic challenges, including a relatively high poverty rate. American Baptist Home Mission Societies supports WCC in its mission of helping the community flourish through faith and material support to families in need. "We as a church truly feel the presence of God through the mission work with youth and adults of the community when they least expected," said Lois Smith.

WCC supports youth who are at the core of its ministry.

Youth from the church participated in the 2nd Annual Harvest Soul 3-Day Bible Camp located at the Wichita Community Church.

Children from Wichita Community Church participated in a "Prayer Walk" through the downtown streets of Anadarko, Oklahoma.

Sixteen children attend services regularly; in summer, twenty-five children attend the vacation Bible school. "Number one goal is to teach them of Christ and to take Him as their Savior and learn that they have a purpose in life as they accept and serve Christ as one," added Lois Smith. "Faith just starts with a small seed and just grows and grows with the word."

With the support of ABHMS, sometimes through One Great Hour of Sharing grants, Wichita Community has provided aid via a multitude of initiatives: Community outreach in-sack lunches, Vacation Bible School, fall Bible camp, back to school supplies, household baskets, hygiene products, warm clothing during the Christmas holidays, holiday dinners, and an Easter egg hunt. "This is a church that has continued to make steady progress, and we continue to watch them with joy and anticipation of how the Lord is moving among them," said Rev. Ben Sullivan, ABHMS' national coordinator for Native American Ministries.

Giving to One Great Hour of Sharing enables churches like Wichita Community Church to assist those most beloved by our Lord - those in need. Give abundantly today and be a beacon of light!
