Greene County Long Term Recovery Group

On May 16, a devastating tornado tore through Linton, Switz City, and Worthington in Greene County, destroying 26 properties and severely damaging 56 others. Many affected families were uninsured or under-insured and are now facing overwhelming loss. In response, the Greene County Long-Term Recovery Group (LTRG), an all-volunteer effort, was formed to help residents rebuild. With support from United Way, which is serving as a fiscal sponsor at no cost, 100 % of donations will go directly to victims. The group's urgent goal is to provide $1,000 in aid to at least 25 families. FEMA assistance does not cover this disaster, so local support is critical. Donations can be made through:

The Grene County Community Foundation

United Way of South Central Indiana
